

Nitin Zamre

Mr. Zamre currently serves as the Managing Director of ICF International in India. Prior to joining the Delhi office of ICF, he was Director – Consulting Practice (Infrastructure) in CRISIL Risk & Infrastructure Solutions Limited, a 100% subsidiary of CRISIL Limited.

Mr. Zamre has about 25 years of experience advising public and private sector clients in energy/infrastructure related issues. Mr. Zamre has also worked on energy markets outside India in Europe, Africa, Middle East, and South Asia. Mr. Zamre has been involved in leading teams advising clients on various energy and infrastructure projects. He is closely working on issues related to energy efficiency and climate change. He has had the opportunity to work with a wide range of stakeholders – regulators, policy makers, lenders, investors, developers etc. He has advised clients on issues related to investments in renewable energy projects, grid integration, demand response projects, energy efficiency etc.